PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) To be injured in a cowardly assault and have his wife stolen by the creature he had befriended was the fate suffered by Deputy Sheriff Elliott Parkhurst at the hands of ex-convict Harry Riley here early Sunday morning.
The remarkable attack has created a sensation here, and there is some mystery to the story.
At dawn Sunday morning Parkhurst was found on the sidewalk near his home almost insensible, with fearful bruises over his body. He was taken home and revived by treatment, after which he told his story. The officer said he had gone out in the evening for a stroll, and on his way home he saw a man, whom he knew as Riley, who was with a woman. When the trio reached the spot where he was found the ex-convict suddenly and without any warning lunged at the officer, and with a back and threw him to the ground. The furious fellow beat him until he lay unconscious and helpless. Then a cab galloped up, and he was taken to the hospital, where he was attended to by the police. Riley was seen since, and he is now being held prisoner by the police. Riley was seen since, and he is now being held prisoner by the police.

The investigation to ascertain the best methods for using and distributing water for irrigation purposes in California has just been commenced by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State acting in cooperation. The last Legislature appropriated $100,000 to assist the investigation, with the understanding that the government would appropriate a like amount for the same purpose. Prof. Samuel Fortier, the Pacific Experiment Station agent, who makes his headquarters at the University of California, was the active head of the work in the field. The investigation which is now being conducted in the Sacramento Valley will extend all over the State and cover every branch of the subject. Prof. J. L. Condit and A. J. Turner will assist Prof. Fortier.

WAR IN WESTERN PASSENGER RATES.
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Further rate demoralization threatens the Western Passenger situation. The announcement of the Chicago Great Western in regard to a flat rate of two cents a mile for 1000-mile tickets has thrown the other roads into consternation, and they are now preparing to make reprisals. Should the Chicago Great Western carry out its intention, they say they will make a local one-way rate of two cents per mile. Some of them add that the rate once established, it can never be taken out.
The result of such a course on the revenues of the roads can hardly be appreciated. Last year the passenger earnings, as a whole, averaged about two and a third cents per mile. That rate took into consideration all reduced rates of every kind. The first effect of a general two-cent rate would therefore be to cause the roads the loss of one-third of a cent, for every mile traveled, providing all rates could be maintained on a two-cent basis. Nobody is foolish enough to suppose, however, that it would be any easier to maintain a two-cent basis than it has been found to be to maintain a three-cent basis. There would be just as much pressure upon them as now to make special excursion rates of one fare and a fare and a third as at present. Traveling men would be as perished as they now are for mileage rates lower than those made the general public, and as competition would be as keen as it is at present, there would likely be as many concessions as there are now, so that the average rate would be reduced to a point far below the two-cent basis.
Once a two-cent basis is put into effect, it is believed it would be found impossible to withdraw it, because every State agent in the West would inevitably take action to make the rate permanent as a maximum rate. The action of the roads themselves would afford the lawmakers justification for taking that action. The whole situation is regarded as being extremely critical, and no stone will be left unturned to prevent the Chicago Great Western from carrying out its contemplated action into effect.
A meeting will be held in St. Paul August 10. At that meeting all-year tourist rates, short-line rates, mileage rates and eastbound steamship rates will be thoroughly revised.

First, there will be the old Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, with recent extensions and improvements; second, the St. Louis and San Francisco system, exclusive of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, recently acquired; third, the Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans, including half a dozen subsidiary lines acquired by the St. Louis and San Francisco Company and about three hundred this kind occurred last night, when several of the convicts visited the Ingram ranch and took a mess of meat which was cooking on the fire. Acting under instructions from Sheriff Boquist, a posse was organized at Lotus by Guard Taylor of Folsom prison. Sheriff Boquist also organized a posse in Placerville composed of five men, including Deputy Sheriff Gilcock, Frank Dargett, William K. Rumpsey, Guard Spencer of Folsom and C. E. Forrester of Reno, who arrived here this afternoon with his two trained bloodhounds. It is known that that convicts secured two cans of cayenne pepper at Diehl's store at Pilot Hill Monday night, a week ago, and it is possible that the Webber Creek party may have some of the pepper, in which case the dogs may have difficulty in following the trail.

It was a curious throng which surrounded the Sheriff's office this afternoon to witness the departure of the convicts and get a glimpse of the bloodhounds of whom so much is expected. Giving his final instructions to the men, Sheriff Boquist shook hands all around and bade them goodbye. Chipping up his horses, Driver Lane turned sharply and drove rapidly down Main street, followed by the shouts of the crowd wishing the men goodspeed.
It is expected that the Placerville men will join the Lotus posse at the Ingram ranch. Webber Creek country tonight. Orilla ranch is situated near where Webber Creek comes into conjunction with the south fork of the American River, at which point it is believed the convicts are hiding. Sheriff has with him a piece of a ferris wheel and a pair of trousers discarded by the negro Seavis at the Foster place last week.
Sheriff Boquist of Sacramento county, Sissy of San Joaquin and Jones of Madeira arrived here this afternoon. They came to consult with Sheriff Boquist as to the best method to be employed in following up the convicts and to arrange it among themselves. It is probable that Sheriff Boquist will organize another posse to leave here tomorrow morning to join the party which left here today for Webber Creek. In which case he will probably take the field himself accompanied by one or more of the visiting sheriffs.
None has been heard today from the three parties who left here last night for the Fair Play country to take up the chase of five of the convicts who have been reported to have been in the district several times since Sunday night. The convicts robbed the cabin of Miner Heasley in the same gang that killed Rutherford and Jones, two members of the Placerville militia, Saturday evening last. Sheriff Norman telegraphed Sheriff Boquist from Jackson this evening that he was about to start for Plymouth with fifteen men to follow the trail of the convicts. Sheriff Norman goes prepared to keep his men in the field a long time and he told Sheriff Boquist that it was his intention to divide his party into two parties, one to follow the trail of the convicts and the other to follow the trail of the convicts. He will send each party over a separate route in the general direction of Silver Lake and Ham station. He believed that the convicts would be successful in their plan, but he believed that the convicts would be successful in their plan, but he believed that the convicts would be successful in their plan.

POSSIBLE FROM JACKSON.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
JACKSON, Aug. 4.—Sheriff Norman and Deputies Fred Jackson and H. E. Kay started from here at noon fully equipped for a long campaign. They took with them a posse of 15 men, picked up recruits all along, expecting to leave there this evening with a posse of about fifteen men, all sharpshooters, bound for Wiley's Station, where thirty miles east of here on the boundary line of Amador and El Dorado. The convicts are said to be in that vicinity at the forks of the Consumnes. They are five in number, some think six, as the exact number is not known. It is reported that Ed Davis is with the gang. He is said to have been in the neighborhood of Wiley's Station and is known every cabin and foot of ground for miles around.
At this season every cabin is stocked with provisions. Little trouble is found in getting food and drink, and streams abound on the Amador side. At Wiley's station, Norman expects to meet the posse of Sheriff Boquist of El Dorado and arrange a plan of operations. Jackson will probably have command of the Amador men. The policy is not to follow the convicts to their lair, but to surround them, then wait for them to come out.

PLACERVILLE, Aug. 4.—The funerals of J. Festus Rutherford and William G. Jones, the young men of Co. H, Second Regiment National Guard, who were killed on Saturday evening at Manzanilla Hill, near the Grand Victor mine, while tracking a party of convicts, took place today. Separate services were held for the two men. The funeral of Rutherford was held in the morning and that of Jones being solemnized late this afternoon, both young men being buried with military honors. The Methodist Episcopal Church, in which services were held, was crowded to overflowing, with the friends and townsmen of the two young men. Many persons from adjoining towns came to Placerville to pay a last tribute to the victims of the bullets at the outlaws. The services, owing to the peculiarly sad conditions surrounding the taking off of the young soldiers were unusually impressive. Then followed the caisson, which was drawn by twenty friends of the departed soldiers, marching two abreast, to Union Cemetery, where the final rites were observed.

Grave Charges Made by Wife.
Aged Mrs. Barnes Wants Divorce from Doctor.
Sequel to Sensational Case in Los Angeles Courts.
Desertion and Adultery Alleged in Complaint Filed in Massachusetts Courts.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BOSTON (Mass.) Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Louisa Pierce Barnes, whose marriage at the age of twenty-five to thirty-two-year-old Dr. Charles H. Barnes was accomplished after a series of exciting incidents on May 11, 1900, has applied for a divorce. The complaint was filed by her attorney, William M. Noble, in Middlesex Court, East Cambridge, July 21, and the fact is so quiet that it leaked out only today.
Besides the libel for divorce, Mrs. Barnes has also filed a writ of attachment against her husband's property for $25,000 damages. In divorce the aged wife asks for release from her marriage, alleging cruelty and adultery, and her husband asks for a choral girl and a child of twelve years.
In the bill of complaint, Mrs. Barnes alleged that she was nearly 25 years of age when she married and by reason of her advanced age and mental weakness was unable to properly understand the nature of the marriage ceremony. She said that she was induced to marry him by a series of false promises and that he had deceived her by deed and without consideration, large portions of her real estate and power of attorney were deposited in banks.
The complaint charged that William H. Barnes, father of the defendant, conspired with him and continued to conspire in the scheme, and that on the performance of the marriage ceremony the defendant removed her to New York, N. Y., and left her in the custody and control of William H. Barnes; that she was unable to return to her home and that Charles H. Barnes visited her home and searched the premises, possessing himself of all her private papers, deeds, mortgages, vouchers and various evidences of debt and order on savings banks. The complaint alleged further that the defendant lived with her for a time, and in June, 1901, deserted her and took up his residence in Los Angeles, Cal., while William H. Barnes continued to live at her home in New York, paying his expenses and her furniture and clothing and efforts to convert the remaining portions of her property into cash.
REMARKABLE CASE.
BARNES COUPLE'S LIFE HERE.
Although the charges preferred by the septuagenarian wife of Dr. Barnes will occasion surprise here on account of the grossness of the acts charged, the case is the most intimate of the situation in the Barnes household at Ocean Park, where the couple had been awaiting some sort of decision of the doctor's charges, which would lead to a serious rupture.
Just last Dr. Barnes became known as a man in the manner in which he kept her under lock and key at the Ocean Park cottage, while she was wasting away with the illness brought on by the close confinement and the cruelty of her husband. Once a day he would allow her a breathing spell on the porch, but only when she was guarded by his mother or William H. Barnes, the father.
The neighborhood was scandalized and the story of Barnes' barbarity published in The Times, led to a thorough disclosure of the doctor's methods. It was shown that the doctor had all his wife's money and only doled out to her enough for a mean existence.
Under the fire of criticism and the threats of neighbors he remained not only impassive, but debonair, thereby leading many to the belief that he was not of sound mind.
Through it all William H. Barnes stood by his son, but it was always believed that he himself was as deeply interested in the "graft" being worked as the young husband. After two weeks of sensation on sensation in connection with the case, Attorney Noble arrived from Boston to look after Mrs. Barnes's interests. Mrs. Barnes is from one of the best families in Massachusetts, and prior to her marriage with Barnes possessed about $100,000 in her own name. As an old friend, Attorney Noble took hold of the case with energy, and his first move was to ask the court to appoint a guardian for the aged woman. After some delay Judge Wilbur denied the motion pursuant to an investigation.
Shortly after this Barnes took his wife East, and the father accompanied them. To the doctor's mother the treatment of the Boston bride was a matter of deepest regret, but she was restrained from expressing herself to such effect except to her intimates.
MILLS CURTAIL PRODUCT OWING TO HIGH COTTON.
REDUCTION OF ONE-QUARTER FOR PRESENT MONTH.
Fifty-five Mills Announce Intention of Curtailing in Addition to the Forty-four Which Have Already Reduced Their Output.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The cotton mills of the United States are evidently curtailing their product as the result of high cotton more than is generally supposed. The Journal of Commerce has made special inquiries as to the extent of this curtailment. Questions were addressed to a number of the largest mills North and South, and replies have thus far been received from about ninety-one mills, having a capacity aggregating 5,000,000 spindles, or nearly one-quarter of the spindles in the United States.
As just said, the curtailment, present and prospective, is greater than is generally known, for out of the ninety-one mills reporting, forty-four have already reduced their output, and fifty-five mills announce their intention of curtailing between now and the new crop. Good authorities have already estimated a reduction of 25 per cent. in the output during August, and if the shut-down movement continues to grow, this ratio is likely to be exceeded. It is noticeable that the mills which have neither shut-down nor intend so doing are few, and are usually those which secured their raw cotton in advance.
Out of twenty-seven mills reported, ten have already curtailed their output, and thirteen report their intention of curtailing between now and the new crop arrives. The Southern mills appear to be in much the same position regarding their cotton supply as the Northern mills, and the reduction of the output is as common there as in the North.
BLUE SQUADRON LEAVES BAR HARBOR.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BAR HARBOR, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Blue, or defending squadron of the navy in the search problem, which will be on in dead earnest at sunrise tomorrow morning, will sail from here after midnight tonight. Just when the ships will go out is known to no one except Admiral Barker, and he is the most silent man in the navy.
Those which are to be on scout duty will probably be sent out earlier than the battleships and cruisers, which will do duty nearer shore. It has been decided to take the training ship, the problem after all, so that all ships of the North Atlantic fleet, except those which compose the enemy, will go out tomorrow. The large vessels in Admiral Barker's fleet are the battleships Keeseage, Alabama and Illinois, the cruisers Olympia, Baltimore and Topeka, and big scout boats Prairie, Panther and Yankee.
The torpedo-boat destroyers defending the fleet have had one of their smokestacks painted bright red to distinguish them from the destroyers of the "enemy." Wireless telegraphy has been installed on a number of the ships, and the new means of communication will be given a thorough test in action.
The sky clouded up here tonight, and weather conditions are favorable for fog. If a good fog blows in, the enemy will have a good advantage.

SECRETARY SHAW'S LUCK WITH BONDS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Secretary Shaw announced, last March, that beginning April 1 the Treasury Department would receive not to exceed $100,000,000 3-per-cent. bonds of 1908 and 4-per-cent. bonds of 1907 and would refund them in 2-per-cent. bonds in 1909 putting out 2-per-cent. bonds on the basis of 102, there were few officials in the department who believed that the amount of bonds refunded would exceed $40,000,000. Some of them predicted that not more than $20,000,000 high-rate bonds would be sent in.
How far these expectations have been exceeded is shown by the fact that the total amount refunded is in excess of $81,000,000. Regarded simply as a refunding operation, the undertaking of Secretary Shaw was highly successful. He replaced $81,000,000 of high-rate bonds by a like amount of 2-per-cent. bonds and did the unprecedented thing of putting out 2-per-cent. United States bonds at a premium of 2 per cent.
If the undertaking is looked at, however, as a step for the purpose of increasing the circulation of national bonds in anticipation of a monetary stringency during the coming fall, it may be questioned whether it has

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the recurrence of hot weather in San Francisco, according to the reports made to the public health service, there are signs of an increase in plague cases. From last December up to the last of July there had been but two cases and these did not prove fatal. Four new cases, however, occurred in July and one proved fatal, and on bacteriological examination it was pronounced undoubtedly a plague case.
The health authorities of this city are employing the same rigorous measures to stamp out the disease that were inaugurated in compliance with the determination of the convention of health experts in Washington, last November. The death rate of Chinatown, San Francisco, which has about twelve thousand population, was last month 23, while that of the whole city was 23. The health inspectors went over 724 buildings last month, reinspected 591 rooms occupied by Chinese and inspected separately 568 Chinamen. During the month they inspected with carbolic acid 331 rooms, houses and yards in Chinatown.
Under the new regulation offering a bounty for rats, the health authorities received the bodies of 23 rats, all of which were bacteriologically examined for indications of plague. The authorities are continuing their policy of condemning and vacating unsanitary tenements. Recently, the practice of flushing sewers in Chinatown was begun as a precaution against plague.

ROOT HAS EYE ON IT.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Secretary Root has addressed a communication to the Merchants' Bridge Company, the owners of the large bridge across the Mississippi River at St. Louis, asking the company to show cause why the United States should not take possession of the bridge under the statute which provides for its construction. Under the law, the Secretary of War can take possession of the bridge without legal proceedings of any kind, if any one of three things happens, namely, if the bridge company consolidates with any other bridge company; if the company pools its earnings with any other company; if the same officers of any other company become officers of the Merchants' Bridge Company.
The allegations presented to the Secretary of War, it is declared that leases made by the Merchants' Bridge Company constitute a consolidation with another company.
MUST PRODUCE TELEGRAMS.
JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Aug. 4.—The Cole county grand jury, which is investigating charges of hoodluming in the Legislature, wants to secure the telegrams that passed between Daniel J. Kelley, legislative agent of the baking powder trust, and former Lieut.-Gov. Henry C. Corbin, who was adjutant-general of the Missouri State Guard during a certain period. Representatives of the telegraph companies refused today to furnish the telegrams, and the refusal was reported to Judge Hazell. Judge Hazell then gave Superintendent G. E. Payne of the Post-Office Department a copy of the demand, and the refusal was reported to Judge Hazell. Judge Hazell then gave Superintendent G. E. BLUE SQUADRON LEAVES BAR HARBOR.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BAR HARBOR, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Blue, or defending squadron of the navy in the search problem, which will be on in dead earnest at sunrise tomorrow morning, will sail from here after midnight tonight. Just when the ships will go out is known to no one except Admiral Barker, and he is the most silent man in the navy.
Those which are to be on scout duty will probably be sent out earlier than the battleships and cruisers, which will do duty nearer shore. It has been decided to take the training ship, the problem after all, so that all ships of the North Atlantic fleet, except those which compose the enemy, will go out tomorrow. The large vessels in Admiral Barker's fleet are the battleships Keeseage, Alabama and Illinois, the cruisers Olympia, Baltimore and Topeka, and big scout boats Prairie, Panther and Yankee.
The torpedo-boat destroyers defending the fleet have had one of their smokestacks painted bright red to distinguish them from the destroyers of the "enemy." Wireless telegraphy has been installed on a number of the ships, and the new means of communication will be given a thorough test in action.
The sky clouded up here tonight, and weather conditions are favorable for fog. If a good fog blows in, the enemy will have a good advantage.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Further details of the cordial reception with which the European squadron is meeting in Portuguese waters reached the Navy Department today. The following cable dispatch from Rear-Admiral Cotton:
"Luncheon, thirty covers today, to Cabinet ministers and rank and file navy and army. All ministers present except one who is absent from Lisbon. Toast to President and King. The admiral, United States Minister Bryan and the American officers who accompanied him, were the guests of the features was a cake walk, which was performed by two negro sailors at the request of the admiral. SECRETARY SHAW'S LUCK WITH BONDS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Secretary Shaw announced, last March, that beginning April 1 the Treasury Department would receive not to exceed $100,000,000 3-per-cent. bonds of 1908 and 4-per-cent. bonds of 1907 and would refund them in 2-per-cent. bonds in 1909 putting out 2-per-cent. bonds on the basis of 102, there were few officials in the department who believed that the amount of bonds refunded would exceed $40,000,000. Some of them predicted that not more than $20,000,000 high-rate bonds would be sent in.
How far these expectations have been exceeded is shown by the fact that the total amount refunded is in excess of $81,000,000. Regarded simply as a refunding operation, the undertaking of Secretary Shaw was highly successful. He replaced $81,000,000 of high-rate bonds by a like amount of 2-per-cent. bonds and did the unprecedented thing of putting out 2-per-cent. United States bonds at a premium of 2 per cent.
If the undertaking is looked at, however, as a step for the purpose of increasing the circulation of national bonds in anticipation of a monetary stringency during the coming fall, it may be questioned whether it has

Hamilton was a farmer who has resided in the county a number of years.
ONE THOUSAND LYNCHERS.
LEWISTON (Idaho) Aug. 4.—By midnight 1000 people had gathered from the surrounding country and the jail in Asotin is surrounded. Hamilton covered the floor of his cell in abject terror. The most intense feeling prevailed and all that the frenzied mob lacked was a leader. The jail was strongly guarded. Special deputies were on guard, but their number was of little weight against the heavy crowd outside.
The officers refused to deliver the keys, but were so outnumbered by the angry mob that they made no resistance with firearms. After the hanging the mob dispersed.

Worrisome Questions of Prohibition and Countervailing Duties Discussed Long in English Commons.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.]
LONDON, Aug. 4.—[By Atlantic Cable.] While the House of Commons was in committee on the sugar convention bill today, a long discussion arose as to whether the importation of bounty-fed sugar should be prohibited or countervailing duties should be imposed. Many of the Liberal members referred to the American importation of bounty-fed sugar as a violation of the most-favored-nation clause, and stress was laid by the opposition on the same question, as it might affect Argentina. Gerald Ralston, president of the Board of Trade, in replying to critics, said that if it seemed likely that a large supply would be cut off by the prohibition, the government would consider the advisability of applying countervailing duties.
TO END JULY FOURTH SACRIFICES.
ST. PAUL, Aug. 4.—Because of the Fourth of July and the opposition to vetoing because of the reckless use of blank cartridges, bombs, pistols and other noise-makers, Corporation Attorney Michael has drafted an ordinance which it is said the City Council will adopt declaring all these forms of Fourth of July amusement are prohibited. The ordinance will not only prohibit the use of these explosives on the Fourth, but also the use of fireworks from carrying them in stock for a month previous to the Fourth. Violations of the ordinance are made punishable by heavy fines. Business men, doctors, city officials and others of influence are said to be back of the measure.

Frank E. Warren Struck on the Head by Falling Pulley at Elysian Park Pumping Plant Yesterday.
Frank E. Warren, a laborer employed at the Elysian Park pumping plant, was struck on the head by an iron pulley while working at the bottom of a 110-foot shaft, yesterday morning, and instantly killed. Warren was working with a man named Atkins in the shaft where they were sinking for a foundation for a pump. The bucket is raised from the shaft by means of an engine, but on one trip the lever was not reversed quickly enough, and one of the iron pulleys attached to gin poles over the mouth of the shaft was wrenched off and fell on Warren's head. Deceased was twenty-eight years of age, was unmarried, and lived on Second street near Santa Fe.
Circulars have been mailed to stockholders of the Consolidated Gas Company of New York announcing an issue of $6,000,000 of 4 per cent. bonds which is offered for subscription at $114. The stock issue is to meet the cost of a plant now being erected on Long Island, and which will supply all of Manhattan and do away with the present scattered plants. The present capital of the consolidated company is $60,000,000.

Belin Says English Sails of His Boat Are on Trial.

Western Jockey Club Restores Horsemen—Los Angeles Whitewashed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
 NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. S. Quigley, yachting expert of the Mail and Express, concluding his articles on the Reliance today, said:

"Not long since it was stated that the Reliance was to be clothed in a complete suit of canvas from the City Island branch of a well-known English sailmaker, and an expert made a statement that in all probability

The American boat would give the preference to her English sister, the Reliance. The sailing owner of the Reliance, called to the statement, and he said quite feigningly: "The American sails of the Reliance are so good, I don't know what they can do. It is an English sail that are on trial."

"Although the New York Yacht Club committee and a few intimates are said to hold exclusive knowledge of the fact, neither is the sail area of the Shamrock III a secret. In the past there is not a wide difference between the two boats. The committee created the Royal Ulster Yacht club's representative, knows this to be so. One of his fond hopes for the success of Shamrock III is that the latter line though it is considerably less than that of the Reliance, it is likely to be disappointed. There ever was a yacht designed on so great an overall measurement as this same Reliance.

"The Bristol sloop will give time to her antagonist, but it will not be near so much as Sir Thomas Lipton's." Both yachts are absolute cheats as to models, but if anything the Reliance is the more accomplished "thief," for she sails big at a minimum penetration as far "down" the water as she is managed to give her the least degree of water line length without sacrificing quite so much of her stability as the Reliance in the challenger.

"The Reliance will be able to take a picturesque heel whenever conditions demand it, but she is as straight as a needle when compared to the Shamrock III. That the latter will be the first to strike the spectators when the two boats meet, unless Designer Wills should decide to add ballast for a surprising purpose, is doubtful."

It has been computed by some that the Reliance will give the challenger a much allowance as 3 minutes—a very wild and woolly guess. Splitting the difference, the Reliance can be said to be the invader 2 minutes and a beating. If time counts for anything, she can. Comparing the two with the Reliance with that of the Constitution and Columbus, the performance of the two Shamrock's, it would seem that there were several minutes to spare in the Reliance over the Shamrock III. But as this calculation is made on size difference in soil area, when it is not likely to be nearly so much, the credit for the American boat's success are enhanced."

SHAMROCK'S RUN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

THE PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

MAYOR SNYDER yesterday voiced a reply to the resolution passed by the Council on Monday regarding the collection of garbage.

The Police Commission voted yesterday to reinstate Cottle, Edwards and Rosen, derelict policemen, in the position of patrolmen.

A new classification for the fire department was adopted by the Civil Service Commission yesterday.

Councilman Davenport declared yesterday that the cow-limit ordinance is openly and flagrantly violated under the eyes of the health department.

The County Supervisors denied Architect Mosser the right to put his name on the barn plans for a county hospital yesterday.

A committee was chosen yesterday to represent the Supervisors in the question of the advisability of consolidating the city and county governments.

H. H. Hamlin, a degenerate who made an indecent exhibition of himself at the Chutes, was six months.

The Board of Health raked over the garbage question again last night, but did nothing but decide how the subject should be handled.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MAYOR SNYDER RETURNS THE COMPLIMENT.

MAKES A STATEMENT REGARDING THE COLLECTION OF GARBAGE.

Calls the City Fathers "Peanut Politicians" and Other Things—Assures the Public that the Board of Health is Trying to do its Full Duty.

Mayor Meredith P. Snyder was angry.

The Chief Executive held in his hand a newspaper containing the resolution adopted by the Council on Monday regarding the garbage contract and its enforcement by the Board of Health.

Crushing the paper tightly in his hand, Mayor Snyder proceeded to take very violent exception to that paragraph where the Councilmen say that when the garbage contractors cease to enjoy protection from the Chief Executive the garbage question will cease to be an issue.

The more the Mayor thought about the resolution the angrier he became. At first the Chief Executive displayed no excitement, but he gradually warmed up to the subject.

"I want to assure the people of Los Angeles that as far as the Board of Health is concerned it is our desire to do everything in our power to have the garbage properly collected. Under the present contract and system the garbage has not been collected to the satisfaction of either the people or the Board of Health."

"We feel that we had a right to adopt the resolution which we adopted a few days ago. It was in accordance with a provision in the contract whenever the Board of Health notifies the Council that the garbage is not collected to its satisfaction, that we have the right to rescind the contract. We were sincere in adopting that resolution. We were sincere some months ago when we adopted a similar resolution recommending a change in the system, and from that communication we never received an answer from the Council."

"There has been no attempt on the part of the Board of Health to myself to criticize the Council. In fact, when a Councilman a week ago read a scorching criticism of the Board of Health to the Board of Health, the Council chamber we took no notice of it, not desiring to bring on a fight between the Council and the Board of Health. Our sole object all the way through has been to better the collection of garbage."

"I must say I was greatly astonished when I read the resolution passed by the Council yesterday. I am sure that the kind of a resolution that might be expected from some ward caucus of peanut politicians, rather than of one coming from those who have been elected to represent a great city like Los Angeles."

"The insinuations are base and without foundation. They are absolutely false. It seems to me that an effort is being made to divert attention from the close relations which seemingly exist between the Councilmen and the contractors instead of between the contractors and the Board of Health."

"Why Contractor Franklin tried to prevent the passage of the resolution by the Board of Health and when he found he could not be assured me that it would never be adopted by the Council. How did he know in advance what the Council would do?"

"Some exceptions have been taken by members of the Council to remarks made by the Board of Health regarding the garbage contract. It was not our intention to reflect on anybody. Not the abstract technical wording of the contract provisions was meant, but the concrete system—the fact that the enforcement of the contract requires the presentation of evidence which it is impossible for the garbage inspectors to produce. As a matter of fact, I do not know who drew the contract. I have heard that Bowen drew it, and that Matthews drew it, and I believe that both claim the credit for it."

"Notwithstanding all that has been said, I am still of the opinion that the garbage contract is a good one."

"I would also call the attention of the public to the fact that all the employees of the Board of Health do not intend to criticize in any way the employees of the department—with the exception of three, are appointees of the present Council and a portion of their distributed patronage made at the time they went into office."

"Now I am confident that Franklin & Alexander will collect every dollar due them under that contract, and that the deductions made for fines will hold as liquidated damages in court. The contractors will let the payments run along, they will accept their warrants with the deductions made, and by and by they will begin an action in court to recover on the city. It will be impossible to show what damage has occurred in each instance, and mark my words, the contractors will secure every cent."

"The only thing if the contractors do not do their work properly, is to annul the contract and sue on the bond."

COW LIMITS.

DAVENPORT ON WARPATH.

"What is the use of the legislative body of a city passing good, wholesome laws when they are not enforced?" demanded Councilman Davenport yesterday.

No explanation was forthcoming, and Davenport continued:

"Now there is the cow-limit ordinance. It is being flagrantly violated every day, and yet by no one but several dairies in the city. The Health Officer knows it, the Board of Health knows it. It is the only ordinance that is taken to enforce the ordinance."

"Some time ago the Council decided

position formerly held by the person

that the dairy of Fred E. Koch, on State street, would have to go. Did it go? It remains there today, despite the decision of the Council. The inspector in that section has been extremely officious, and when approached by citizens has boasted of what he would do and what the Council would do if they did not hold their peace.

"William Niles is still running his dairy down in my ward, and there are dairies all over town run in violation of the law prohibiting the keeping of more than two cows on any one piece of ground. Why in the world can't the health department enforce some of the laws provided by the Council for the proper sanitation of the city?"

Davenport said much more concerning the non-enforcement of the cow-limit ordinance. He declared it to be worse than useless for the Council to pass ordinances unless the executive branch of the government paid some attention to them. He said that, like the garbage contract, they were not self-executing.

The Inspector referred to by Councilman Davenport is Delaney D. Moran, the same man who incurred the displeasure of Mayor Snyder by selling of the Union Consolidated Refining Company for applauding the action of the Board of Public Works against the refinery.

Davenport intimates that the garbage contract and the cow-limit ordinance are not the only features of the commission wherein the executive department is weak, and suggests by very plain words that Mayor Snyder had better look to his knifing before "darning" the Council for their action of last Monday.

CIVIL SERVICE OPINION.

The Civil Service Commission was informed yesterday afternoon of the action taken by the Police Commission in reinstating Officer Cottle, Rosen and Edwards as patrolmen under rule XI. The commissioners were not sure that they could answer the resolutions made upon them, and referred the applications to the City Attorney for an opinion.

Rule XI, as printed elsewhere, says that men may be reinstated in the positions they formerly occupied with the commission within two years from the time they are compelled to leave the department. The point was made at the session yesterday that it had been years since the officers acted as patrolmen, and that it would be impossible to reinstate them as patrolmen after the lapse of so much time.

Fire Commissioners Thomson and Yater appeared before the Civil Service Board to explain the necessity of adopting a different classification for the fire department. It was suggested by Commissioner Thomson that first and second-class and relief engineers be included in the same class, and first, second and third-class firemen in another class. The board adopted the suggestion and embodied it in a new classification, which was unanimously approved.

The board divided into six grades, the first being the assistant chief engineer, the second being the chief engineer, the third being the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The board also included the engineers, grade 4B, the drivers, and grade 5B, the hosemen, ladder men, and other classes. Progression from the bottom to the top of this grade ladder is regulated by the board.

On July 23 the six months' probationary period for all employees who had expired, and they are now included in the regular classified civil service, and cannot be discharged without a hearing.

The first instance of the pinch of this shoe came to light yesterday. Street Superintendent W. A. Warden, who had been dismissed by the services of F. A. Wills as inspector of street sprinkling for disobedience of orders, was originally dated in July, but was changed to August 1. The secretary of the board, who had been instructed by Superintendent Warden that he could not discharge Wills without a hearing unless that employee desired to present his resignation.

Health Officer Powers notified the board that Quarantine Guard A. G. Burt had been dropped for disobeying quarantine rules. The guard, H. Faulkner, had been dropped for sleeping while on guard. The disinfectants were allowed to be used by the men only recently passed the civil service examination, and were still on probation.

It was decided to give oral examinations for janitors in cases where the applicants can neither read nor write.

GET POSITIONS.

OFFICERS REINSTATED.

Rule XI of the Civil Service Commission may prove a saving grace for Officers Ray E. Cottle, George W. Rosen and E. L. Edwards.

These officers have been suing in the court to secure reinstatement in the positions they occupied before their demotion last March. The general impression has been that they would not get the reinstatement, but now, through the courts, and if they did so, the Police Commission or the Civil Service Commission would immediately proceed to try them on charges that would be forthcoming.

Certainly the prospect was not very pleasing to the officers directly affected, as a decision against them in the court would read them out of the Police Department altogether. But where there is a will there is a way.

At the session of the Police Commission yesterday morning it was voted to make requisition on the Civil Service Commission for the reinstatement of the three officers. Mayor Snyder put the matter very nicely.

"When these three officers were demoted last March," said he, "it was not the intention of the Police Commission to run them out of the department. It was purely intended to discipline them for disobeying the rules. Now it seems that our action will have the effect of putting these men entirely out of the department unless some further action is taken."

"There is, however, a rule adopted by the Civil Service Commission which permits the reinstatement of men within a certain time provided they were not removed for cause. It was owing to no fault of theirs that they were forced entirely out of the department, as it was merely intended to discipline them."

Rule XI reads as follows: "A vacancy in any position which has been or may hereafter be classified under the rules and regulations of the commission, may be filled by the reinstatement, within two years from the date of said removal, of any person who was removed from the position for cause, provided that such person was not removed for cause, and provided that such person was not removed for cause, and provided that such person was not removed for cause."

The only thing if the contractors do not do their work properly, is to annul the contract and sue on the bond."

"William Niles is still running his dairy down in my ward, and there are dairies all over town run in violation of the law prohibiting the keeping of more than two cows on any one piece of ground. Why in the world can't the health department enforce some of the laws provided by the Council for the proper sanitation of the city?"

Davenport said much more concerning the non-enforcement of the cow-limit ordinance. He declared it to be worse than useless for the Council to pass ordinances unless the executive branch of the government paid some attention to them. He said that, like the garbage contract, they were not self-executing.

The Inspector referred to by Councilman Davenport is Delaney D. Moran, the same man who incurred the displeasure of Mayor Snyder by selling of the Union Consolidated Refining Company for applauding the action of the Board of Public Works against the refinery.

Davenport intimates that the garbage contract and the cow-limit ordinance are not the only features of the commission wherein the executive department is weak, and suggests by very plain words that Mayor Snyder had better look to his knifing before "darning" the Council for their action of last Monday.

CIVIL SERVICE OPINION.

The Civil Service Commission was informed yesterday afternoon of the action taken by the Police Commission in reinstating Officer Cottle, Rosen and Edwards as patrolmen under rule XI. The commissioners were not sure that they could answer the resolutions made upon them, and referred the applications to the City Attorney for an opinion.

Rule XI, as printed elsewhere, says that men may be reinstated in the positions they formerly occupied with the commission within two years from the time they are compelled to leave the department. The point was made at the session yesterday that it had been years since the officers acted as patrolmen, and that it would be impossible to reinstate them as patrolmen after the lapse of so much time.

Fire Commissioners Thomson and Yater appeared before the Civil Service Board to explain the necessity of adopting a different classification for the fire department. It was suggested by Commissioner Thomson that first and second-class and relief engineers be included in the same class, and first, second and third-class firemen in another class. The board adopted the suggestion and embodied it in a new classification, which was unanimously approved.

The board divided into six grades, the first being the assistant chief engineer, the second being the chief engineer, the third being the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The board also included the engineers, grade 4B, the drivers, and grade 5B, the hosemen, ladder men, and other classes. Progression from the bottom to the top of this grade ladder is regulated by the board.

On July 23 the six months' probationary period for all employees who had expired, and they are now included in the regular classified civil service, and cannot be discharged without a hearing.

The first instance of the pinch of this shoe came to light yesterday. Street Superintendent W. A. Warden, who had been dismissed by the services of F. A. Wills as inspector of street sprinkling for disobedience of orders, was originally dated in July, but was changed to August 1. The secretary of the board, who had been instructed by Superintendent Warden that he could not discharge Wills without a hearing unless that employee desired to present his resignation.

Health Officer Powers notified the board that Quarantine Guard A. G. Burt had been dropped for disobeying quarantine rules. The guard, H. Faulkner, had been dropped for sleeping while on guard. The disinfectants were allowed to be used by the men only recently passed the civil service examination, and were still on probation.

It was decided to give oral examinations for janitors in cases where the applicants can neither read nor write.

GET POSITIONS.

OFFICERS REINSTATED.

Rule XI of the Civil Service Commission may prove a saving grace for Officers Ray E. Cottle, George W. Rosen and E. L. Edwards.

These officers have been suing in the court to secure reinstatement in the positions they occupied before their demotion last March. The general impression has been that they would not get the reinstatement, but now, through the courts, and if they did so, the Police Commission or the Civil Service Commission would immediately proceed to try them on charges that would be forthcoming.

Certainly the prospect was not very pleasing to the officers directly affected, as a decision against them in the court would read them out of the Police Department altogether. But where there is a will there is a way.

At the session of the Police Commission yesterday morning it was voted to make requisition on the Civil Service Commission for the reinstatement of the three officers. Mayor Snyder put the matter very nicely.

"When these three officers were demoted last March," said he, "it was not the intention of the Police Commission to run them out of the department. It was purely intended to discipline them for disobeying the rules. Now it seems that our action will have the effect of putting these men entirely out of the department unless some further action is taken."

"There is, however, a rule adopted by the Civil Service Commission which permits the reinstatement of men within a certain time provided they were not removed for cause. It was owing to no fault of theirs that they were forced entirely out of the department, as it was merely intended to discipline them."

Rule XI reads as follows: "A vacancy in any position which has been or may hereafter be classified under the rules and regulations of the commission, may be filled by the reinstatement, within two years from the date of said removal, of any person who was removed from the position for cause, provided that such person was not removed for cause, and provided that such person was not removed for cause."

The only thing if the contractors do not do their work properly, is to annul the contract and sue on the bond."

COW LIMITS.

DAVENPORT ON WARPATH.

"What is the use of the legislative body of a city passing good, wholesome laws when they are not enforced?" demanded Councilman Davenport yesterday.

No explanation was forthcoming, and Davenport continued:

"Now there is the cow-limit ordinance. It is being flagrantly violated every day, and yet by no one but several dairies in the city. The Health Officer knows it, the Board of Health knows it. It is the only ordinance that is taken to enforce the ordinance."

"Some time ago the Council decided

that the dairy of Fred E. Koch, on State street, would have to go. Did it go? It remains there today, despite the decision of the Council. The inspector in that section has been extremely officious, and when approached by citizens has boasted of what he would do and what the Council would do if they did not hold their peace.

"William Niles is still running his dairy down in my ward, and there are dairies all over town run in violation of the law prohibiting the keeping of more than two cows on any one piece of ground. Why in the world can't the health department enforce some of the laws provided by the Council for the proper sanitation of the city?"

PASADENA, Office of The Times. No. 24 South Raymond Avenue, Aug. 4.—The Pasadena Humana Society held a mass meeting in a Methodist church Sunday, and now finds it necessary to remonstrate with a Methodist minister, who, if reports be true, is its first cultist since the meeting.

He stated that Rev. J. J. Wood, who resides on Monterey Road in the southern city, was guilty of placing arsenic-laced with strychnine in his fruit trees for the purpose of killing the birds which had been eating his fruit. The society appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. Holmes and Peets, to investigate the case. The society also appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs.
